On Thursday, May 27, 2010 Concord Academy Petoskey school board President, Earl Raynal, Jr., announced the hiring of Mr. David Hill as the school's next director. Mr. Hill is currently employed by the Grand Rapids Child Discovery Center, a K-5 Reggio Emilia—inspired public school. Mr. Hill earned his Master of Arts in Education from San Jose State University, and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies with a minor in psychology, and concentration in Waldorf teacher training from Mercy College of Detroit. Raynal, reporting on the hiring said, "the entire Concord Academy Petoskey family including our current director Mr. Nick Oshelski, faculty, staff, and board members are thrilled to be bringing a school leader of Mr. Hill's caliber and broad experience to our school and community. Mr. Hill is truly a unique individual who has resonated strongly and positively during the interview process with the Concord family. His skills and interests compliment very well our mission to deliver excellence in an arts integrated curriculum for our K-12 students. We are very happy to have been served by Mr. Oshelski in this position over the past two years, and wish him well in his new oversight position with our chartering agency, Lake Superior State University."
